

Data Privacy Policy

Health Care for All Minnesota (HCA-MN) is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard personal information when you interact with our organization, including through our website, events, email and text communications, and advocacy efforts.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide, including your name, email address, phone number, mailing address, and other information you share when you:

- Sign up for emails, text messages, or newsletters
- Register for events or trainings
- Participate in advocacy actions or surveys
- Make a donation or pledge
- Contact us directly

How We Use Your Information

HCA-MN uses your information to:

- Communicate about our mission, programs, events, and advocacy opportunities
- Send action alerts, updates, and reminders
- Organize supporters and engage in grassroots advocacy
- Process donations and maintain organizational records
- Improve our outreach, programs, and effectiveness

Mobile Messaging

If you opt in to receive text messages from HCA-MN, we will use your phone number to send informational messages, action alerts, and event reminders. Message and data rates may apply. You may opt out at any time by replying STOP.

Sharing of Information

HCA-MN does not sell, rent, or trade your personal information. We may share information only:

- With trusted service providers (such as email, texting, or database platforms) solely for organizational operations
- When required by law
- With your explicit consent

Data Security

We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, misuse, or disclosure. Access to personal data is limited to staff and volunteers who need it to perform organizational duties.

Your Choices

You may:

- Unsubscribe from emails at any time using the link provided in our messages
- Opt out of text messages by replying STOP
- Request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal information by contacting us
